

IDESS Maritime Centre (Subic) Inc.

Shipboard Environmental Awareness (MARPOL) For Non-Tankers Course

Description:

This course aims to provide knowledge, understanding and guidance relating to the requirements of MARPOL 73/78 as amended and other relevant international legislation for personnel operating vessels other than tankers.

Objectives;

Trainees who successfully complete this training course should be able to:

- Describe MARPOL 73/78 and its Six Annexes.
- Realize the implications of intentional or accidental release of pollutants of any sort to the environment.
- Determine pollution prevention and waste disposal procedures implemented on ships.
- Record the handling or discharge of any wastes generated from the normal operations of ships.
- Understand the significance of ballast exchange before arriving port.

Course Outline:

- Introduction
- Annex I
- Annex II
- Annex III
- Annex IV
- Annex V
- Annex VI
- Ballast Water Management

Entry Standards:

The course is open to all seafarers with or without shipboard experience. Maximum number of participants is twenty-four (24).

Duration:

1.5 Days